Important, lucid Layout Contemporary American literature is subversive. It contains an element of the surreal, bizarre names, plots and consistent, biting commentary. Primarily postmodernist, these works are inherently distrustful. As a result, contemporary American literature, arguably continues the pattern of highly-politicized fiction popularised in the 18th and 19th century, along with the thought-provoking philosophical questions of 20th century Modernist movement. John Updike, Harry "Rabbit" Angstrom series (1960, 1971, 1981, 1990). Desiring to return to Ada Monroe, the woman he is in love with, he dangerously embarks on a journey to return home on foot (reminiscent of Homer's The Odyssey and elements of Dante's Inferno).
