About J. Louis Martyn. J. Louis Martyn is Edward Robinson Professor Emeritus of Biblical theology at Union Theological Seminary in New York City. He has written From a number of similar stories in the Synoptic Gospels and even in other Hellenistic literature, we know about an oral form of tradition which we term a miracle story. The form is naturally somewhat plastic, and we will do well to keep that in mind. Nevertheless we may speak with confidence of three elements which are very often found in the miracle story form. There is a description of the sickness, often emphasizing its serious nature (cf. Mark 2:3).
