The island of Boracay in the Philippines has become famous around the world for its beautiful white beaches. The island is only 7km in length and at its narrowest just 500m wide but people flock here for the outstanding beauty that the island offers. The main attraction is White Beach that has a 4km stretch of white sand that is surrounded by restaurants, hotels and diving shops. There is always a party happening on the island with fire shows and live music giving revelers an evening of non stop entertainment. Over the years the development of the island has continued but there are still plenty of General Information about The Philippines. An archipelago situated in South-East Asia, The Philippines has been the hottest destinations for tourists and travelers alike in the past few years as most discover its enchanting gem that has successfully impressed a lot of its local and foreign visitors. Boasting with over seven thousand islands and impeccable flora and fauna, the number of things to do in The Philippines is indeed countless and absolutely worth a try. With the country's vast influence from its neighboring countries and its more than three decades of Spanish influence, you'll find In the rural Philippines, most women give birth at home and then have the baby's placenta buried beneath the house, often with an object symbolizing what the parents hope the child will grow up to be. In the cities, this practice is prohibited by the health authorities.[16]. Santelmo, or Santo Elmo, is a fireball seen by dozens of Filipinos, especially those who live in the Sierra Madre Mountains.
