Living & studying in Sydney. Accommodation. General information. Sydney boasts a vibrant arts and culture scene with many galleries and museums featuring extensive collections of contemporary works and cultural and historic artefacts. Large and small performance venues play host to theatre, dance and musical productions, and an exciting live music scene. On the weekend the city is abuzz with locals and visitors attending eclectic arts and crafts, food and clothing markets in locations across the city and surrounding suburbs. These markets complement fabulous shopping precincts featuring designer boutiques, bookshops and second hand/vintage shops, an absolut Sydney is an expensive city but like living anywhere it's about finding out the affordable places and being smart about how you spend money. With regards to food, I found a number of places that have affordable groceries and I would budget for the month based on my requirements.
